2-2. "Collector" includes all Collectors appointed under the "Taxation Act," all Government Agents, every constable and officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and every person authorized by the Minister under the Act.

2-3. "Place of amusement" shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Act.

3. Tax Returns

3-1. Return Form.—The owner, proprietor, or manager of a place of amusement shall make a return of the tax to the collector for that locality within the time and in the manner as set forth in these regulations. The return shall be filed in duplicate and shall contain the daily number of admissions; the first and last numbers of the strip or roll tickets issued, or the numbers of admissions as recorded by any mechanical device in use, or the total of any unnumbered tickets issued for each day's operations together with the established price or fee charged for each admission; and the total value of each day's receipts and the tax thereon, and such other details as may be prescribed on the return. Particulars in respect of admissions by season ticket, pass or complimentary ticket will be recorded on the return in the same manner as daily paid admissions. The return, accompanied by the tax, shall be remitted to the collector, and the tax may be paid by cash, or by cheque, bank, express, or postal order, or postal note, free of exchange, cost of remittance, and other charges, and where payment is tendered by cheque or orders, no tax shall be deemed paid, notwithstanding any receipt given therefor, until the amount of the cheque or order by which payment is tendered has been collected by the collector.
